USDA SEEKING AGRICULTURE TRADE ADVISORY COMMITTEE NOMINATIONS

DATE: 11/29/2010

The Texas Department of Agriculture (TDA) encourages the nomination of industry representatives for the Agriculture Trade Advisory Committees. Texas is a leader in agricultural trade, and it is imperative we have representation at the federal level.

The committees advise USDA and the Office of the U.S. Trade Representative on international policy and priorities. Ideal candidates are knowledgeable in agriculture and well versed in international objectives.

For more information and to nominate a Texan for USDA's consideration, please contact TJ Verver, state coordinator for international marketing, at GoGlobal@TexasAgriculture.gov to seek TDA support. The deadline for completed nominations is 5 p.m. on Dec. 17. For additional details - including how to submit nominations - go here.
